BONE CHINA PAPERWEIGHTS MADE IN ENGLAND

The Royal Crown Derby paperweight range proved to be an imaginative and well received addition to the line when it was first introduced in 1981. The paperweights were conceived as a series of practical yet aesthetically attractive objects that would have a broad appeal to collectors. An important tradition absorbed into the design concept for the paperweights was the highly significant "Imari" pattern developed in the Derby factories in the late 18th century. Today, Royal Crown Derby paperweights are collected around the world - admired for their brilliant blue, red and gold decorations.
